When I read the funeral account I looked through all the week's papers until I found the account because I was not sure of the street he had lived on.

Please write and tell Ruth and Zillah that I am sorry that I had not known, when I write to Dorothy and Mary I will let them know. I'll probably get a real bad scolding for not reading the papers better.

I wish again to express my sympathy and